

South Western Youth Basketball

Player Code of Conduct

The purpose of the South Western Youth Basketball Player Code of Conduct is to set the standard of behavior required for players in the organization. All youth players are able to enjoy their experience of playing basketball, develop/improve as basketball players, and assist their team to improve.

- I will be encouraging and supportive of teammates.
- I will show good sportsmanship with interactions with other players in the organization, my team, coaches, opponents, and referees by acting in a positive manner.
- I will be on time and ready to play in games and practices and will do my best during games and practice. Practices are a time to learn, not socialize.
- I will give my best effort in practices, games, and events. I understand that effort demonstrates my commitment to the team and my respect for my coaches and teammates.
- I will respect all coaches, players, referees, volunteers, and other league officials.
- I will respect the use of South Western School district facilities and other venues.
- I will respect the use of South Western Youth Basketball Organization equipment.

Violations will result in: first offense, player will be benched at the next attended game. Second offense, player will not be eligible to participate in the SWYBB organization for the remainder of the season.
